DID YOU KNOW?

Governor Macquarie named the town (now City) of Campbelltown after his wife Elizabeth’s maiden name.

DIRECTIONS:

You will NOT need a map to complete the Trail Quest. The directions will lead you from start to finish, even if you can not find a clue along the way.

REMEMBER ….

Take care of your own and party safety especially when crossing the road.

Respect the environment and the surrounding buildings and take your litter home with you or place in a bin.

Don’t forget to Slip Slop Slap.
Congratulations you have now finished this Trail Quest.
You should have one remaining location and key person.
Turn to the back page to find out how you can submit your answer and be entered into a prize draw.

Take the path to the right which is going in a diagonal direction. (This should be the second path after Burns). Cut across the grass to the flagpoles for the next clue.

Cross off a location which can be found on the Marina Rules.

Cross off a location which can be found on the Marina Rules.

Walk up the stairs above Mrs Macquaries Chair to the path at the top. Cross off the location by which this area was once known.

Cross off a key person who died on the 13.08.1885.

Cross off a key person who gifted the art pictured.

Cross off a key person found in the sculpture by Nigel Helyer.

Cross off a location which the boy in this statue might need to go to for help.

Cross off a location where the 2nd wishing tree could be found.

Take the path to the right which is going in a diagonal direction. Cut across the grass to the flagpoles for the next clue.

Return to the path and continue on. Follow the path around so that the Art Gallery is on your left.

Continue ahead and cross the footbridge. At the end, go down the steps (or the lift). At the bottom, turn left into Bourke Street.

Walk along Bourke Street to the lights. Cross Cowper Wharf Roadway to the Marina in front of you.

Walk along the Marina. The water should be to your right.

Return back up the steps and continue along the footpath. Follow the lower path along to Mrs Macquaries Chair.

There are no clues along this section so enjoy the views and stop at Mrs Macquaries Chair.

Cross off the steps by which this area was once known.

Cross off a key person who gifted the art pictured.

Cross off a key person who died on the 13.08.1885.

Stay on the path that is above this statue.

Take the first right, then the next left onto a main footpath.

Walk straight ahead to the footpath roundabout.
